

CONSENT TO ORDER

NOW, THEREFORE, NSSI consents to the following in consideration of its desire to obtain Washington State reciprocal non-resident agent licenses for its employees that hold personal lines licenses from their resident state:

1. NSSI consents to entry of this Order.
2. NSSI will provide a copy of this consent order to each of its employees who now holds or in the future obtains a Washington State reciprocal non-resident agent license; and NSSI will obtain and keep the signed agreement of each such employee acknowledging receipt of a copy of this order and agreeing that the employee will surrender his or her Washington license upon termination of the employee's employment with NSSI and that the employee will not transact insurance in the State of Washington involving commercial matters unless licensed in Washington to do so, and will not transact insurance in the State of Washington in excess of the authority granted by the employee's state of residence license. NSSI will maintain such agreements for at least five years following termination of the employee's employment.
3. Within thirty days of the termination of employment of a NSSI employee covered by this agreement, NSSI will notify the OIC of the employee's termination of employment with NSSI and the license and appointments will be terminated.
4. NSSI will provide the OIC with a list of all NSSI employees now holding Washington State reciprocal non-resident agent licenses whose licenses in their home states are limited to personal lines authority so that the OIC can update or modify their Washington licenses in accordance with this Consent Order.
5. NSSI understands and agrees that its failure to fulfill the conditions set forth in this Order shall constitute grounds for disciplinary action against the Company.
